

RICAARDOE DI DONE

Please don't let me go Papa!

The Family,
The Legal System,
The Shock

Buy it online now!

THEO DONE & ASSOCIATES LTD.

What people are saying...

"Please don't let me go Papa! chronicles a fascinating journey of legal twists and turns through a system that failed to understand the awesome motivational power of one's man irreversible love for his son".

Chief Edgar A. MacLead

Vice President, Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police

"Please don't let me go Papa! is a powerful indictment of a legal system that fails, totally, to meet its obligation to work in the best interests of children of separated and divorced parents. It illustrates on behalf of the countless children and parents who are caught in similar situations, why changes need to be made to our legal and social structures, to ensure that children do not become the tool of animosity between adults/parents who no longer live together".

Eugenia Repetur Moreno

Executive Director, Canadian Association of Social Workers

"Please don't let me go Papa! is a heartbreaking account of a father's love for his son bedevilled by the legal system. Their reunion after sixteen years testifies to the author's unyielding determination to prevail in spite of formidable odds".

Hon. Justice Herbert Marx

Justice, Quebec Superior Court

Please don't let me go Papa!, by Ricardoe Di Done.
2003, 324 pages [English]. ISBN 2-923161-00-9

CDN$ 24.95*

* Canada: Please add CANS 5.00 for Shipping and Handling for a total of CANS 29.95. Please allow two weeks for delivery.

* U.S.A.: Please add CANS 10.00 Shipping and Handling for a total of CANS 34.95. Please allow two weeks for delivery.

50% of the proceeds from the sale of the book will go towards helping the Organization for the Protection of Children's Rights (OPCR) fulfill its mission of protecting and defending the rights of children, adolescents and other members of the extended family.

A True Story That Makes the Case for More Humane Methods of Resolving Family Conflicts Involving Children

Please don't let me go Papa!

- Relates in poignant and compelling language the gripping and turbulent 16-year journey of a father through an almost unbelievable maze of legal bickering as he struggles to maintain a vital relationship with his natural son;
- Describes the living nightmare that is shared by countless couples and their children;
- Puts into print what so many parents, both men and women, express only to friends and confidants;
- Provides concrete and achievable recommendations to our legal and social structures to ensure the best interests of children and parents in the midst of separation, divorce, custody and access disputes.

A must-read book for:

- All couples with children who are thinking about or caught in separation or divorce proceedings;
- Social workers, family law specialists, psychologists, educators and other professionals dealing with children's rights and issues;
- Teenagers who have to live with the consequences of the break-up of their family;
- Anyone who cares for children and their families.

To order on line, please visit our Web site: <http://www.opcr.org> or for more information, please contact:

Organization for the Protection of Children's Rights (OPCR)

5167, Jean-Talon Street, Suite 370, Montreal (Quebec), Canada, H1S 1K8

Tel.: 514-593-4303 Fax: 514-593-4659 Email: fmeunier@osde.ca